

My Read at Home Book

This is a daily comprehension book with fiction, non-fiction, poetry and procedural texts.

If your child has been using this text for additional literacy support homework or in class, they would likely have been doing a level lower than their present class level.

So 3rd class students use My Read at Home Book 2 and so on.

We would suggest starting from week 21 in the book.

It is completely at your discretion as to how many pages you do a week. They provide 4 comprehensions per week. The student can write the answers or complete them orally with an adult.

Remember each student is different, so if it's too easy or difficult adjust the level accordingly.
